

JEWISH WOMEN'S GETAWAY

Discovering and Cultivating
Gratitude in Our Lives

November 13-16, 2016

Welcome to our 5th annual Jewish Women's Getaway!

We are so excited you are here and are looking forward to sharing a few days of inspiring, relaxing, educational, and fun programs with you. We hope you have the opportunity to do something you love, connect with old friends, try something for the first time and meet new people.

Our theme for our time together, facilitated by Rabbi Doctor Analia Bortz, is Discovering and Cultivating Gratitude in Our Lives.

We have created experiences that will help you discover your inner gratitude and continue on your path to creating and sustaining a life filled with moments of appreciation.

In this program book you will find

-  The schedule for the week
-  A "Who's Who" of our Program Facilitators and Staff
-  All About Ramah Darom
-  A map of our campus

We hope this booklet helps you choose sessions that are a fit for what you personally are hoping to get out of the retreat.

Thank you for joining us, and please let us know if there is anything we can do to make your stay even more enjoyable.

B'shalom (In Peace),

2016 Jewish Women's Getaway Staff

Meet Our Amazing Program Facilitators

Amy Bernard, our JWG photographer comes to us from Graphics Plus Inc. After graduating Ringling College of Art & Design, Amy Bernard began the journey that lead to the ownership of this award winning company. The years of experience include customer service training at the world-famous 5-star Resort, The Breakers Palm Beach, where only 5-star service is acceptable. Multiple years of print shop employment as a designer and sales person, learning the ins and outs of the printing industry and decades of freelance graphic design on a multitude of products and services.

Robyn Diamond is a Certified Integrative Nutrition Health Coach. She received her training from the Institute of Integrative Nutrition and is Board Certified through The American Association of Drugless Practitioners. Diagnosed with Crohn's Disease in 1995, Robyn found her way to Health Coaching through her personal health challenges. After many years of follow doctor's orders, she took her health into her hands and turned to nutrition and lifestyle to heal her body. She now coaches individuals and groups, as well as, leads workshops and classes on healthy living and nutrition.

In 1996 a newlywed Sam Dressler drove to Clayton GA for the groundbreaking of a new camp, joking on the way home about the possibility of future children attending said camp. After several retreats and Passover vacations, her daughter joined Ramah Darom in 2010 (Gesher 2016), followed the next year by her son (Gesher 2019). Both consider camp to be their home away from home, and have formed incredible friendships (and both hope to be on staff). Sam has attended all five Jewish Women's Getaways, which get progressively better!

Greg Greer Greg Greer currently has his own business, Greg Greer Enterprises, Inc., which provides environmental education, eco-travel consulting, natural history interpretation on field trips, and the monitoring of peregrine falcons in Atlanta, Georgia. Grege was a senior naturalist with Orbridge, destination specialists and 11 years as an expedition leader for International Expeditions where Greg led trips on all 7 continents. Greg was the Executive Director of the Chattahoochee Nature Center (CNC) in Roswell, Georgia. Greg is an avid naturalist and nature photographer with an interest in all aspects of natural history.

My name is Carrie Kerr Hilton. I am a neuromuscular and massage therapist of over 9 years. In my practice I use Swedish, deep tissue, NMT, myofascial release, stretching, scar tissue therapy, oncology massage, prenatal massage, and reflexology. Originally from Yorktown Heights, New York; I have lived in Georgia for many years now. I am married with three handsome sons; ages 14 years, 6 years, and 3 months old. Currently I am studying to become a nurse and I work full-time.

Rebecca Holohan, LMT, RYT is a licensed massage therapist offering integrative therapeutic massage specializing in Myofascial Release. A certified yoga teacher, Rebecca also teaches embodied spirituality classes at Congregation Bet Haverim in Atlanta, GA. She believes people do better when they feel better, and she loves helping clients release chronic pain, tension, and stress through massage and yoga. You can find her at Full Compass Massage in Decatur, GA or www.massagetherapyatl.com.

Sandie Ivers has been part of the Ramah Darom family since 2001, working as Director of the Dining hall for the last three summers, as well as planning programming for Passover Retreats, Family Camp and Camp Yofi. Sandie worked tirelessly on meals and logistics to make last year's getaway a success, and we are thrilled to have her back this year! During the year, Sandie is the Events Client Specialist for Talbots.

Linda Klein is one of our 2016 Artist-in-Residence. She brings a wealth of creativity, talent and ideas to our upcoming Jewish Women's Getaway program. Linda served as art director at Camp Starlight for many years and studied various forms of art in both college and graduate school. This year, Linda is excited to share her jewelry making expertise with us by offering a unique workshop involving beading and antique eclectic pieces. She will also lead a paper cutting workshop to showcase some of the innovative ways we can use paper to create gorgeous pieces of art.

Corinne Gelfand Lipnick was raised in a small city in rural Florida located in the middle of the Baptist Bible Belt. Corinne enjoys participating in a wide range of "hands on" activities, including challah baking, stained glass, photography, scrapbooking, and sewing. She also makes and teaches custom cake decorating. Corinne's grandmother taught her how to crochet when she was 8 years old. During graduate school she began to crochet kippot. Corinne lives in Gainesville, Florida with her husband Jesse and their two Labrador retrievers. They have a 21 and 23-year-old, both of whom are Ramah alumni.

Lisa Loveday: I have been working in Experiential Education for 37 years. I have had the opportunity to work for several organizations and schools, the most impactful of which was North Carolina Outward Bound School. I constantly seek trainings to further my learnings and enjoy experiences which challenge me physically and mentally. I currently work with Avery County Schools as Experiential Education Program Director. My passion is Experiential Education—learning by doing. I enjoy guiding and assisting individuals into experiences through which they can learn about themselves, their strengths and capabilities, and continue to learn and grow.

Hi! It's Marni Mount! I started my career as a special education teacher and after several moves due to husband's job, decided to change my life a bit. In the afternoons, I work as a companion to several elderly clients. But, in the mornings, I dance! (And teach water aerobics). After falling in love with my first Zumba class, I got the confidence (after 2 years) to get licensed and teach Zumba myself! This is my 6 the year as a ZIN instructor. (Zumba Instructor Network). My vice is dancing- I get a natural high from it every time!

Brooke Rosenthal began practicing yoga 18 years ago in her native Los Angeles. After her second child was born, Brooke also experienced a yoga rebirth and has been steadily strengthening her practice since, finding much peace and joy within it. Brooke is the proud mother of 4 children, ages 10 to 4. She spends lots of time in the grocery store and kitchen, providing healthy foods to feed her family and guests! Brooke has just launched a small business named Modern Elders, which strives to enable accessibility to modern handheld devices and online connectivity for the older population.

Jessica Shafirin, originally from White Plains, New York, fell in love with helping others from an early age. She grew passionate about providing support for people in her community and abroad. Her commitment to care for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of others led her to pursue rabbinic ordination from The Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies at the American Jewish University and later to work as a chaplain in the Atlanta and St. Louis areas.

Loren Wolstein Stein has owned her own design and consulting company, Loren Stein Designs, since 1990. She is an active multi-media artist creating art in mediums such as painting, paper-cuts, invitations, centerpieces, ritual art and more. She has taught studio art to elementary age students through twelfth grade. She presently teaches all grades and levels of high school studio art. Her background in architecture has been an asset in giving her the skills to create multi-media works with dimension and depth. Loren, her husband Eric, and four children Alex, Jonah, Lena, and Levi, reside in Boca Raton, Florida since 2000.

Elissa Vessal began her love of Ramah camping as the tennis instructor on Sports Tzvet at Ramah Poconos in 1989. Only a few years later, her daughter is a Ramah Darom Geshar XV & Poland/Israel Seminar alumna hoping to be hired as Ramah Darom staff this summer and her son is part of Ramah Darom Geshar 2017! As Ramah Darom's Board of Directors Year Round Chairperson, Elissa is grateful to be at RDJWG again, sharing in the meaningful and fun experience with family and great friends. Please chat with Elissa if you want any more information regarding different year round programs or camp experience

Meet Our Amazing Ramah Darom Staff

Michael Fingerman is a dedicated Jewish Professional and long-time Ramah summer camp staff member. He has spent five summers working at Camp Ramah in Nyack and the past two summers as a Rosh Edah (Unit Leader) at Camp Ramah Darom. As the Program and Youth Assistant for the Retreat Center at Ramah Darom, Michael works to coordinate and enhance our youth programming. A New York native, Michael moved down to Atlanta after graduating from the University of Pittsburgh with a degree in Urban Studies and Jewish Studies certificate.

Anthony Franklin (MBA) has worked at Ramah Darom since 1997 under numerous titles. Presently Mr. Franklin serves as the General Manager since 2011. In this capacity Mr. Franklin is responsible for managing the Clayton facility. Prior to coming to Ramah Darom, Mr. Franklin had a small construction company that specialized in finishing basements and new additions. Prior to managing his own business, Mr. Franklin worked in the grocery business where he held management positions including store managers for Winn Dixie and Food Lion. Mr. Franklin was educated at Piedmont College in Demorest, Georgia where he earned BA with a concentration in Management, later Mr. Franklin earned his MBA in Managerial Leadership at Piedmont College.

Katie Hendricks is our Hospitality and Sales Coordinator of the Kaplan Mitchell Retreat Center at Ramah Darom. Prior to coming to Ramah Darom, Ms. Hendricks spent over 7 years in the health care industry, engaged in Nutrition and Dietetics and Wellness planning. She also served with Food Bank of Northeast Georgia where she was the childhood nutrition coordinator. Ms. Hendricks also has experience with event planning, property management, and retail management. Ms. Hendricks was educated at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, North Carolina where she earned a Bachelor's of Science in Nutrition and Dietetics. After graduation she completed her post baccalaureate studies at the University Hospital in August, Georgia.

Todd Jones (Chef) Todd Jones has 30 years of experience as a professional chef. Just after high school, Chef Todd accepted a job working at a family restaurant in Florida, where he discovered he had natural knife skills and a knack for working in the food environment. After six years, Chef Todd enrolled at the Culinary Institute of America, and later landed a job on the island of Guam in the South Pacific working for Lufthansa Airline Caterers as a senior executive sous chef. Chef Todd then worked at The Phoenician Resort in Scottsdale, Arizona, a Five Star, Four Diamond rated resort restaurant. Over the years, Chef Todd started his own businesses and worked in a few other restaurants, including Flemings Prime Steak House and Wine Bar. He originally was introduced to Ramah

Darom by Brad Semon from The Painted Plate. Todd recently Resigned from Starmount Forest CC and decided to return to Ramah where he knows he belongs. In his free time, Chef Todd loves to travel, play golf and enjoy great food, wines and spirits.

Emily Kaiman, Program Coordinator for the Retreat Center at Ramah Darom, found her passion for Jewish education through her experiences with Hillel and here at Camp Ramah Darom. She followed this passion, receiving her BA in Judaic Studies from the University of Florida ('05), and her MA in Experiential Education from American Jewish University ('08). Emily has enjoyed developing creative and inspirational programs first through her work at KOACH and then as the Director of Jewish Life and Learning at the Saul Mirowitz Jewish Community School in St. Louis, MO. A creative spirit, Emily enjoys writing, camping, yoga and good coffee. Emily lives in Atlanta with her husband, Rabbi Ari Kaiman, and their 4 young children.

Eliana Leader, Director of the Kaplan Mitchell Retreat Center at Ramah Darom, is a long time Jewish professional and experienced community builder. Eliana has passionately served the Atlanta Jewish community through professional roles such as the Executive Director at Young Israel of Toco Hills, and Experience Imagineer and curriculum developer for Jewish Kids Groups, as well as through volunteer roles such as Limmud Atlanta + SE board member and young adult leadership program coordinator. She has a B.A. in sociology with a minor in Jewish Studies from University of Maryland, and a Graduate Certificate in Experiential Jewish Education through the Center for the Jewish Future at Yeshiva University. She and her husband, Yoni Kaplan, are natives of Atlanta and have a daughter, Aria.

About Ramah Darom

Ramah Darom (Ramah of the South) is a world-class Jewish overnight camp and retreat center in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Ramah Darom's mission is to offer exceptional experiences in Jewish living and learning to youth, adults, families and communities year-round.

We are incredibly proud of our growth over the past 20 years. Every summer, campers join us for a fun, inspiring and educational Jewish overnight camp experience. Throughout the rest of the year, Ramah Darom hosts people of all ages on our campus for programs, simchas (celebrations) and retreats.

Ramah Darom is surrounded by more than 10,000 acres of hiking trails in the adjacent Chattahoochee National Forest. The inspiring scenery, beautiful facilities and comfortable lodging provide the perfect landscape for fun and meaningful Jewish experiences.

Many people ask us how they can be a part of the magic here at Ramah Darom. There are so many ways to support the meaningful programs we do. Your support is greatly appreciated and goes a long way toward ensuring Ramah Darom's future. To learn more about how you can help Ramah Darom please visit our website at ramahdarom.org/donate or contact Sharon Rosenfeld, our Director of Development at 404-503-2129 or srosenfeld@ramahdarom.org.

Winter Break Family Camp at Ramah Darom

Channel your inner kid at the family vacation you'll never forget!
Tuesday, December 27, 2016-Sunday, January 1, 2017

Families and kids of all ages are welcome to our third annual Winter Break Family Camp. Kids and adults will have time together and time apart to learn, play, rest, explore and enjoy. And, of course, there will be spectacular New Year's Eve celebrations for everyone!

FARM 2 TABLE TU B'SHEVAT, FEBRUARY 10-12, 2017

Come celebrate Tu B'Shevat, the Jewish festival of trees with delicious, locally-sourced, Kosher meals prepared by our stellar Ramah Darom catering team in partnership with a farm to table guest chef. Experience ways YOU can make a difference; try your hand at farm to table cooking, enjoy hikes and meditation, and work the land to plant and preserve our new Ramah Darom orchard!

Can't come for the whole weekend? Join us on Sunday, February 12th from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm for the first Farm 2 Table Green Festival at Ramah Darom! We will have something for all ages, from gardening and recycled craft projects to beer brewing, yoga, personal care product making and much more!

For more information on these programs and more check out <http://ramahdarom.org/programs>, or contact Emily Kaiman, ekaiman@ramahdarom.org.
